Study English on a University Campus

Located within blocks of downtown Indianapolis, IUPUI is Indiana's premier urban university, where students earn degrees from either Indiana University or Purdue University. Home to many internationally recognized schools and programs – including the IU Kelley School of Business, IU McKinney School of Law, Purdue School of Engineering & Technology, and IU Herron School of Art & Design – IUPUI is the perfect place to pursue your English language studies in the United States.

This program greatly improved my English speaking and writing abilities. Thanks to PIE, I am confident in my law school classes.
